CURTIS BYRD DRUMS
BIO

Curtis Byrd is a Los Angeles-based Drummer, Percussionist, and Musical Director whose commanding stage presence, deep pocket, and genre-spanning versatility have made him a trusted force in live music and entertainment. From performing with legendary artists Stevie Wonder and Van Morrison to leading bands across R&B, Latin, jazz, hip-hop, pop, rock, gospel, funk, and dance music, Curtis brings precision, energy, and unmistakable groove to every performance.

Curtis currently serves as Drummer and Musical Director for the Latin Legacy Tour, featuring Baby Bash, MC Magic, and Lil Rob. He also performs with jazz guitarist Chris Standring and Blimes and The Bando, while continuing to work with a diverse roster of artists, DJs, bands, and live productions.

Curtis' credits extend beyond the concert stage into film, television, music video, and commercial productions. He performed as a drummer on the "Vegas" video shoot with Doja Cat connected to the motion picture "Elvis" and appeared alongside Will Ferrell as a bucket drummer in a PayPal commercial. These projects highlight Curtis' ability to bring his musicianship, professionalism, and energy to major entertainment productions both on stage and on camera.

Whether behind a full drum kit, adding percussion alongside a DJ, or directing a band from the drum throne, Curtis brings the same commitment to every performance: serve the music, elevate the artists, and connect with the audience. His versatility has made him a trusted musician for tours, concerts, television, film, commercial productions, corporate events, and special performances.

Beyond performing, Curtis is a certified Remo HealthRhythms® facilitator, leading interactive drum circles and rhythm experiences that create connection, community, and positive energy.

From major concert stages and entertainment productions to community experiences, Curtis Byrd continues to build a career centered around groove, excellence, versatility, and the power of rhythm.

Curtis Byrd Drums — Bringing the Rhythm. Bringing the Energy.

bookcurtisbyrd@gmail.com